

CONFERENCE OF THE WORLD RUGBY SCIENCE NETWORK

12TH SEPTEMBER 2017

Morning Session

Time	Sessions	Speakers
9:00-9:10	Opening address	Keith Stokes
9:10-10:10	Better, faster, stronger Innovations in rugby training	Dr James Betts Bath (protein & recovery) Dr Sean Williams Bath (training load) Dr Alex Atack St Mary's (kicking performance)
10:10-10:45	Teaser trailers What's to come in rugby research	Mark Atkinson Bath (academy rugby) Nick Dobbin Chester (assessing running performance) Tom Mullen Chester (movement patterns and load) Stephen West Bath (training load in pro rugby) Pat Carden Exeter (biomechanical injury risk factors) Madi Davies Oxford (long term player health)
10:45-11:05	Coffee break
11:05-12:05	Hot takes Expert discussion of current headlines	Prof Craig Twist Chester (conditioning best practice) Dr Mike Hislop World Rugby (RFU Activate programme) Dr Ken Quarrie NZ Rugby (TBD) Panel Discussion
12:05-12:50	Tackling injury The latest evidence around player safety	Dr Ezio Preatoni Bath (tackling & biomechanical loading) Dr Danielle Salmon NZ Rugby (Rugby Smart programme) Panel Discussion
12:50-13:00	Closing address	Keith Stokes

Afternoon Session

Time
13:00-14:00	Lunch break
14:00-17:00	Load Monitoring Workshop (Dr Sean Williams Bath & Dr Dan Weaving Leeds Beckett) This workshop will explore and discuss the current best-practice approaches for each stage of the athlete monitoring cycle; from collecting, storing, and cleaning workload data, to analyzing and making informed decisions. This will be a hands-on workshop, with the opportunity to apply the latest techniques to your own data. This workshop will be ideally suited for both practitioners and researchers involved in workload monitoring.